

I am opposed to cellular telephone use on commercial aircraft. Also any inseat telephones should be removed. An emergency phone moderated by flight attendants is appropriate.

I believe that commercial aircraft security and courtesy is threatened by personal communication devices on the aircraft.